

We Are Not Friends

Fiddlehead

In every town that I walked throughout with you
I see the lives we once knew from a golden youth
It's like the phone we dialed when we were young has never rung
And all our lines of standing by go unsung

And the bullshit place of where we only speak in my dreams
Is the sting of everything we said we'd never be

So I'll say it
So I'll say it
So I'll say it
(So I'll say it)

Always said, always said, never say all we said
Always said, always said, never say all we said
Always said, always said, never say all we said
Always said, always said, never say all we said

I wanna feel alive again so I'll say it
I wanna feel alive again so I'll say it
I wanna feel alive again so I'll say it
I wanna feel alive again so I'll say it
