

Silence

Fiddler's Green

Will it ever change
Will you ever fade to gray,
Will it ever change
In these empty halls I stay,
Only disbelief
In these empty halls I grieve,
Silence falls upon me...

I can see... how it used to be,
Love was game to play
But you went the other way,
Still I see... how it used to be
Love was a game to play,
But you went the other way...

Silence falls,
In these empty halls
My soul is a barren land
Silence will never end,
There's a room,
Deep inside of me
We live there never more
I have to lock the door...

I can see... how it used to be,
Love was game to play
But you went the other way,
Still I see... how it used to be
Love was a game to play,
But you went the other way...

Silence silence in my hands
In my soul Empty rooms
