Pack urn up and ship urn off the rock
You can park your car anywhere you want
But by the time you get back, ah that shit's ripped off
I can't promise you that but I promise I'd be back with the sack that you
Asked
When you're thinking about doing so stupid shit at my home
Remember, you're on my rock

Get off my block
Get off my rock
Get off my rock
Get off my rock

Fuck it, I need a cigarette
I need a bag of ice I need some Heineken
And a boom box bumping out some real hood shit
And some Pakalolo, grown local What bada you? Are we too local are we too loco are we too voco?
When you're on the beach reading some book that you bought
Remember, you're on my rock

Get off my block
Get off my rock

False crack a tourist and let's steal their shit
And take urn to my unko that knows how to sell it

Big fucking deal if you get gentrified
Back in the day it was called colonized
So when you're on vacation trynna "find yourself
