

I'm Going Nowhere

FIDLAR

My inhibitions gets me nowhere
I know I shouldn't want to be there
Life's been slow, too much free time
Left at home, I've come to die

I don't mind dying young
I made my mind up when I was drunk
And I don't mind dying young
I'm no better than my friends and my friends are dumb

Waking up and I'm not sober
I never should have called you over
I hear my girlfriend says I'm lazy
I couldn't see her, room was too hazy

I don't mind dying young
I get it up even though I'm not hung
And I don't mind dying young
Fake ID 'til I'm 21

I don't mind dying young
I made my mind up when I was drunk
And I don't mind dying young
I'm no better than my friends and my friends are dumb
