

SAD KIDS

FIDLAR

I don't know when it started
Why am I so broken hearted?
I tear myself aparted
I tear myself aparted

I'll keep breaking even
And swiping out my feelings
Doing cocaine on the weekend
Cocaine on the weekend

Because sad kids like to party
Sad kids like to party
Sad kids like to party
Sad kids like to party
Sad kids like to party
Sad kids like to party
Sad kids like to party
Sad kids like to party

I don't know how to say this
I love you but I hate this
I'm working on my issues
Working on my issues

I'll keep chasing dragons
And jumping off the wagon
Fucking up is my passion
Fucking up is my passion

Because sad kids like to party
Sad kids like to party
Sad kids like to party
Sad kids like to party
Sad kids like to party
Sad kids like to party
Sad kids like to party
Sad kids like to party

Sad kids like to party
Sad kids like to party
Sad kids like to party
Sad kids like to party
Sad kids like to party
Sad kids like to party
Sad kids like to party
Sad kids like to party
