Too Real

FIDLAR

Well I been thinking about things I can't say
Cause everybody freaks out every single day
And if they weren't so stupid they'd open their eyes
And d-d-d-d-drugs well saved my life

And I walk up in this bitch like I own the place
Cause everybody is rich in the United States
There's a bunch of white people calling white people white
Yeah I don't think you can say that, that ain't right
But of course the government's gonna fuckin' lie

Well of course the government's gonna fuckin' lie
A bunch of white people calling white people white
And why the hell is everybody on their phone?
Why is the answer to life on the fuckin' phone?

And is the answer to my happiness in the cloud?
And if I die will anyone notice if I'm not around?
And if I'm not gonna make it then I'm gonna have to kill
Aw shit man was that too fuckin' real?

Was that too fuckin' real?
Was that too fuckin' real?
Was that too fuckin' real?
Was that too fuckin' real?

Well I know you like me better when I was reserved
When I was just like you and I was part of the herd
I don't need another reason to decide
G-g-get the hell out of my life

And I'm sick of being in this stupid place
I'm sick of being a part of someone's database
And all the bullshit bands that are on the charts
Yeah motherfuckers you know who you are

Let's pretend that EDM didn't happen at all
And the politics are why you drink alcohol
And you can blame it on the left or you can blame it on the right
No just admit you just like to fight

No you just like to fight, no you just like to fight
You've gone so far to the left, you ended up on the right
You've gone so far to the right, you don't care if you're right
Are you really feeling guilty about being white?
Hey, what's that like?

Was that too fuckin' real?
Was that too fuckin' real?
Was that too fuckin' real?
Was that too fuckin' real?
