

do you want me?

Field Medic

It's not that I want you
I want you to want me
So I can choose to lose you when I want
My choice
I want you to want me
You don't
You don't

And it's not that I need you
I need you to need to me
So I can feel desired
Then leave when I'm through
I need you to need me
Do you?
Do you?
Do you?

So just take my heart
It's pounding out my chest
Like Morse code and the message is:
It's not just you, I'd give it to Whoever asked me to
I would

Cause it's not that I want you
I want you to want me
Do you?
Do you?
Do you?
