Field Medic

This is commitment
And don't no one believe it's true
It don't pay to be different
Right now but I know someday it will
Fuck all you people
Cool kids in the DSA
I'm a college dropout
Plus I have to quit smoking I sing every day
Yeah, yeah, I sing every day

One day I'm gonna be free
One day I'm gonna be free
You'll become flash tattoos
On the walls of my memories
Just some growling wildebeast
With my dagger through your cheek

The perfect judy
Gets crushed beneath the arrogant shoe
The museum is empty
The fauves start to paint in black and blue
That bundle of stars hangs
Like sage tied up, or just like a noose
If you find me gone, lights out
It's just I was so ugly I had to make night moves
Yeah, yeah, I had to make night moves

One day I'm gonna be free
One day I'm gonna be free
And become flash tattoos
On the walls of my memories
Just some growling wildebeast
With my dagger through your cheek

With my dagger through your cheek
Fuck all you people
