

light is gone

Field Medic

I don't suppose you know the roses
The sand dollars, hurricanes daughters
Leave me sad afternoons
I had dreamt
I had dreamt of a life
Of a life like 'hours in the garden'
But humanity ain't no novel
They don't feel me at all
Do they feel you?

It ain't sunny now, evil's catching on
The light is gone

Boundlessness-
The suggestion of her legs
In a pencil skirt electrofies my Tropical sky
But that crash of thunder
That warm september rain ain't meant for me
Cause I had dreamt
I had dreamt of a love
Of a love like henry & ms. barkley
Of a love like renata & charlie
But my love ain't no story
No my love's always a charade
