

I'm just hanging out at goodwill
Looking for my one true love
I'm in the library reading in the aisle
Looking for my one true love
I'm smoking a cig sitting on a fire hydrant
Looking for my one true love
I'm drinking a tall can on the steps of a church at twilight
Trynta find my one true love

I'm wearing weird clothes & feeling sexy
Dressing like my one true love
So she'll know that I'm the fashion king
Once I find my one true love
I'm railing percocet at the party
Getting high to find my one true love
I'm hungover on the daily
Come & save me one true love

I'm at the grocery store buying EBT sushi
Wasabi soy sauce one true love
I'm making eye contact, smiling, then looking away shyly
Hey, that might have been my one true love
I'm reading Norwegian Wood by Murakami
Dreaming of that one true love
I'm in the sunroom drunk & recording
Emo & horny one true love
Hey come & fuck me one true love
I'll make you breakfast in the morning
One true love
