

Calm those explodin' eyes
You gotta forgive yourself sometimes
Calm those explodin' eyes
You gotta forgive yourself sometimes

Even the music of the world sounds different
And the shadow of the tree on concrete reminds me of lost trust
Misguided charity
But the emerald skyline said to be brave and the way you're standing in the sun sometimes can cause a shadow to fall
In the dark shapes you don't recognize at all

Calm those explodin' eyes
You gotta forgive yourself sometimes
Calm those explodin' eyes
You gotta forgive yourself sometimes

And the emerald skyline said to be brave and the way you're standing in the sun sometimes can cause a shadow to fall
In the dark shapes you don't recognize at all

Calm those explodin' eyes
You gotta forgive yourself sometimes
Calm those explodin' eyes
You gotta forgive yourself sometimes

Calm those explodin' eyes
You gotta forgive yourself sometimes
Calm those explodin' eyes
You gotta forgive yourself sometimes
