

Glimpse

Fiersa Besari

Is there an island of hope so I could rest my head?
I'm tired of this journey and those nightmares from past
I'm letting go all of the boxes; all the boxes of you
Sometimes pain hurts me bad, let the rain sweep it away

Glimpse of memories about you stays forever

I'm not okay, but I'll be just fine without you
You broke my heart, but I'll be just fine
Yeah I'll be just fine without you

And now we walk on our own path, time for me to sail the sea
Facing tides and the wind, I'll find another reason to live

I'm not okay, but I'll be just fine without you
You broke my heart, but I'll be just fine
Yeah I'll be just fine without you

Don't cry anymore, you did nothing wrong
Get back on your feet so you could learn to smile once more

I'm not okay, but I'll be just fine without you
You broke my heart, but I'll be just fine
Yeah I'll be just fine without you
Without you
