

Resist the Tyrant

Fifth Angel

Hide, hide behind your blades of steel
With an iron fist force the masses to kneel
You took the price in blood
Kneel or die, in your lust for power

We will break the silence, we resist the tyrant...

No, we'll not cower in fear
It's only now that you've tasted the fire
You took the price in blood
Kneel or die, in your lust for power

We will break the silence, we resist the tyrant...

We will break the silence, we resist the tyrant
We will break the silence, we resist the tyrant...
