

Run to the Black

Fifth Angel

You can see the sign
The abomination of desolation
Running out of time
Decimation now, right now

Stars are falling, the warning is calling out
Hearts are blinded, now there's no time for doubt

Run... run... to fight from the shadows
Run... just run... run to the black
Run... run... the devil's in the sanctuary
Run... run... don't ever look back

Escape from the enslaved
Deviation, separation
Fleeing to the caves
Devastation now, right now...

Stars are falling, the warning is calling out
Hearts are blinded, now there's no time for doubt

Run... run... to fight from the shadows
Run... just run... run to the black
Run... run... the devil's in the sanctuary
Run... run... don't ever look back...

Stars are falling, the warning is calling out
Hearts are blinded, now there's no time for doubt

Run... run... to fight from the shadows
Run... just run... run to the black
Run... run... the devil's in the sanctuary
Run... run... don't ever look back...
