

I'm wiping the mud on my eyes
Will you wash them clean?
Help me to see with your eyes
I want to see what you see

The blue skies are calling me
Time to rise and see
Time to soar high above the trees
I'll ascend with eagles wings

Looking down from above
I see the hurricane winds
And assure that it's torn up
The path of where destruction's been
As the remnant's rebuild starts
I won't stay, I will have no part
I will fly away, I'll be gone
I will be long gone

The blue skies are calling me
Time to rise and see
Time to soar high above the trees
I'll ascend with eagles wings

You can't hold me down
You can't hold me down

This earth is not my home
(I'm just passing by)
This earth is not my home
(Fly away from you)

The blue skies are calling me
Time to rise and see
Time to soar high above the trees
The blue skies are calling me
Time to rise and see
Time to soar high above the trees
I'll ascend with eagles wings
I'll ascend with eagles wings
