

Consumed

Fight The Fade

You feel surrounded
You feel the walls are closing in
Your heart is pounding
It's about to cave in

Adrenaline's pumping
It's time to choose what will you do
Will you go to battle
Or let yourself be consumed

Run!
Up to the front lines
Go!
We won't stand down tonight
No!
Not without a fight
You can't stop us
Run!
Up to the front lines
Go!
We won't stand down tonight
No!
Not without a fight
You can't stop us now

It's not gonna be easy
Then again it never was
But anything worth keeping
Is worth fighting for, it's worth fighting for
