

Lost It All

Fight The Fade

Here I am again
I'm dying from inside
Your claws still sinking in
You're like a cancer to my heart

It's killing me now
I need to let go

You can run
But there's no one to save you now
You can cry 'til your throat's numb
Watched you crawl
Lost it all and now you've found
I'm burning those bridges down

I can feel everything
Every little ounce of pain
Can't give you all the blame
By now I should've walked away

Killing me now
I need to let go

You can run
But there's no one to save you now
You can cry 'til your throat's numb
Watched you crawl
Lost it all and now you've found
I'm burning those bridges down

You're a virus
But I'm standing tall
And without me
You've lost it all

You can run
But there's no one to save you now
You can cry 'til your throat's numb
Watched you crawl
Lost it all and now you've found
I'm burning those bridges down

You can run
But there's no one to save you now
You can cry 'til your throat's numb
Watched you crawl
Lost it all and now you've found
I'm burning those bridges down
