

I Remember

Figurines

I remember everyone you know
It's eerie oh oh oh
I won't forget you, I know I never will Never oh oh oh

I remember everyone you know
I remember you
I remember everyone you know
I remember oh oh oh
I remember oh oh oh
I remember you

I have seen you standing on your feet
By me oh oh oh
You have seen me when I couldn't eat
By you oh oh oh

I remember everyone you know
I remember you
I remember everyone you know
I remember oh oh oh
I remember oh oh oh
I remember you

You passed along to show off, why?
Because you, you passed along to show us
Show us why

There's a glass of whiskey on the floor
There it is oh oh
Now let's argue, oh wait, by the way
Let's just have one more

I remember everyone you know
I remember you
I remember everyone you know
I remember oh oh oh
I remember oh oh oh
I remember you
