

One Word

Fiji

Well she's the type a woman that you never take notice of Until the day you open your eye's and saw she's beautiful What struck you was how humble she carried herself in her great ness
How lucky you must be to feel such passion in the makin'

If I had one word from her lips, I'll be grateful
Let alone an opportunity to be her man, I'll be faithful
I'll lay it all down, just for her I will do it
For once in my life I have finally found something worth pursui
n'
And its her

I was a drunk and a liar and a cheat and a thief
Finally I found somebody that's so opposite of me
Make me wanna do the things I never thought that I would do Make my boy's start to wonder why I'm missin' from the crew
Used to be the most dependent brother that they all run too Somethin' poppin, something droppin' they all know I was a fool
But the time's are changing and I gotta be cool
And I do it for you, oh baby

If I had one word from her lips, I'll be grateful
Let alone an opportunity to be her man, I'll be faithful
I'll lay it all down, just for her I will do it
For once in my life I have finally found something worth pursui
n'
And its her

Happiness is such an understatement when I'm hangin' with her
And it's written all over my face
I'm surrounded by her warm embrace everyday of my life
She put the pieces back together that was broken so long
And that would make a man like me wanna sit down and write her this song, oh baby

If I had one word from her lips, I'll be grateful
Let alone an opportunity to be her man, I'll be faithful
I'll lay it all down, just for her I will do it
For once in my life I have finally found something worth pursui
n'

If I had one word from her lips, I'll be grateful
Let alone an opportunity to be her man, I'll be faithful
I'll lay it all down, just for her I will do it
For once in my life I have finally found something worth pursui
n'

And its her