Fiji

(I've been meaning to tell you)
(Your sweetness)
(My baby, yeah)
(So wonderful)

I've given my time, my love
And placed you where no one's ever been
And my heart of hearts
I know I will be vulnerable
It took a while for me to ever feel like this again
So excuse me if I'm weak when we're apart

Sincerely yours from now until the moment I can't breathe
And if it may seem
To sound just like a dream, please
Don't wake me
Sincerely yours from now until the moment I can't breathe
And if it may seem
To sound just like a dream, please
Don't wake me
Ooo, ooh

Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh
You shine a light so bright
Where I have been caused to be
Living in the dark
And in my moments of weakness
Oh, you gave me your heart
Mmmmm
I'm overwhelmed and grateful
Of how you pulled me through
I promise that I will love you so completely

Sincerely yours from now until the moment I can't breathe
And if it may seem
To sound just like a dream, please
Don't wake me
Sincerely yours from now until the moment I can't breathe
And if it may seem
To sound just like a dream, please

And when you're gone
I feel alone
I wish that you could be by my side
And you should know
That even though
Rely on me for your ride or die
I wouldn't want any other by my side
Only you, baby
That's how we always should be
You complete me

Sincerely yours from now until the moment I can't breathe
And if it may seem
To sound just like a dream, please

Sincerely yours from now until the moment I can't breathe
And if it may seem
To sound just like a dream, please
Don't wake me
No, oo
Woo, oo
