

Heaven Won't Cry

Fil Bo Riva

Looking back at the moment, hard to forget how we cried
Looking back at the moment, tryna remember your smile
Come back tonight, almost forgot what it's like
Stay for a while, before this dream falls apart

Anything's better than this
Are we too broken to fix?
I'll never hold you like this
I'm still hung up on your lips

Anything goes, nothing comes close
You make me smile, stay for a while
Heaven won't cry
Heaven won't cry

Looking back at the moment, I realized it was over that night
Apologized with emotions, but I felt this love had just died
I close my eyes, dream of the days we were fine
Turn off the lights, before this world falls apart

Anything's better than this
Are we too broken to fix?
I'll never hold you like this
I'm still hung up on your kiss

Anything goes, nothing comes close
You make me smile, stay for a while
Heaven won't cry
Heaven won't cry

I'm back alone, on my own once again
Writing songs about love, about you
Wish I was there making plans for our future
I wish I was still twenty-two

Anything goes, nothing comes close
You make me smile, stay for a while
Heaven won't cry, no oh oh
Anything goes, nothing comes close
You make me smile, stay for a while
Heaven won't cry
Heaven won't cry
