Love or something
Just like it
Will come and replace you

Do you really wanna go?
I don't have energy to see this through
I see less of me, a lot of you
I guess that's nothing, that's nothing new

Lest you forget
The lack of respect
You fuck with my head
Wait... How much am I worth again?

Caught in your wake
You're so sorry, watching me leave
But you're that noise
Such a tragedy
And it's over
But I'm not

So back the fuck up

Love or something
Just like it
Will come and replace you

Yeah I feel so cynical
Caught up in the push and pull
I'm never good enough in front of you
I guess that's nothing, that's nothing new

Lest you forget
The lack of respect
You fuck with my head
Wait... How much am I worth again?

Caught in your wake
You're so sorry, watching me leave
But you're that noise
Such a tragedy
And it's over
But I'm not

So back the fuck up

Love or something
