The day starts out the same
Another day to try and live
Took some kids to school today
And I got some blood to give
A young man is a trigger finger
And a sharpened plastic shive
He blocks the exits, checks his 15
And stops the will to forgive

Just another day in the hate land
Just another day in the hate land, baby
Just another day in the hate land
Just another day in the hate

Thoughts and prayers

I'm bleeding out of open wounds
Another day that no one cares

Fake ass bitches in the belt way
Are beneath me to begin
Fake ass bitches in the belt way
Love to lie, cheat and steal to win
Talks a good game but the rules have changed
They took when they needed to give
Apathy is a bigger trigger
We gotta flip the middle finger to live

Just another day in the hate land
Just another day in the hate land, baby
Just another day in the hate land
Just another day in the hate land over [?]

Look at what's happening to us now
Look at what's happening to us now

Look at what's happening to us now
They got us right where they want us - at each other's throats

They got us right where they want us - at each other's throats!
