Finding Favour

Sometimes it's hard to see it
And I struggle to believe
I'm waiting for what hasn't happened yet
Though I hold my heart in pieces
I know there'll be a healing
Even if it's after my last breath
No matter what I know Your promise is

You are strong in my weakness
You won't stop 'til it's finished
And though my heart may stop beating
You will heal me completely
You will heal me completely

I trust the tears I cried
Will rise up and testify
That you my God are faithful 'til the end
And tell me what can come against me
Even death could never hold me
Cause You're the God whose love can raise the dead

You are strong in my weakness
You won't stop 'til it's finished
And though my heart may stop beating
You will heal me completely
You will heal me completely

It may be here, it may be now or I may have to wait
But Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Healing's coming
All my pain and all my brokenness will finally be erased
Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Healing's coming

You are faithful in sickness
You won't leave me unfinished
And though my lungs may stop breathing
You will heal me completely

God You are strong in my weakness
You won't stop 'til it's finished
And though my heart may stop beating
You will heal me completely
You will heal me completely
You will heal me completely
