

I'll Find You

Finding Favour

Sometimes I think You're hidden
Somewhere far somewhere out of site
Sometimes I think I'm alone here
In the dark trying to find the light

But when I look back
I can't forget that You've never left me here before
You're all around me
In every heartbeat
Give me eyes that see You more

On the highest of mountains
In deepest of seas
In all of creation
and inside of me
In joy and in sorrow
Today and tomorrow
Wherever I look it's true
I'll find You

I'm never without reason
To believe and to lift my praise
Because if I fall silent
Even the rocks will shout Your name

On the highest of mountains
In deepest of seas
In all of creation
and inside of me
In joy and in sorrow
Today and tomorrow
Wherever I look it's true
I'll find You

The veil was torn
It was torn in two
There's no separating me from You
Wherever I am
I know you're there to
There's no separating me from You
