I believe that it was man before us
That it ain't nun that's new under the sun
(Yea I believe in a whole lotta shit)
They ain't never heard a young nigga preach
Shut the fuck up let a young nigga speak

In a minute the Illuminati gon' want me
Ayy I believe when I'm sleep the devil hauntin' me
I believe that when I eat I'm still hungry
Sometimes I feel my Grandmas praises, I ain't lonely
Sometimes I laydown in a room as if I'm caged
They want me jackin' off with thoughts of gettin' laid
Now I'm runnin' like a slave, askin' God for more days
And I believe it's more ways but they make it hard for me
I'm a felon no wage, twelve beat me he get suspended no pay
But if I beat twelve I get five-thousand days, I'm preachin'

I believe that it was man before us
That it ain't nun that's new under the sun
They ain't never heard a young nigga preach
Shut the fuck up let a young nigga speak
