

Not Going To Be Afraid

Finger Eleven

I watched the bridges burn, I see the pages turn my story's ready to unfold
Even though it's so dark, I see one last spark maybe holds not far away
Heaven can help me, but courage could sell me on one last chance I should take

For those who don't know my name, play me just like a king
Today won't be the same, I'm not gonna be afraid
Crushing the overwhelming doubt, scream over the loudest shout
Then whatever happens now, I'm not gonna be afraid

Gone to a different place so far from yesterday, change is all that remains
Whoever I am now, I am without you, I'll do my best to be brave

For those who don't know my name, play me just like a king
Today won't be the same I'm not gonna be afraid
Crushing the overwhelming doubt, scream over the loudest shout
Then whatever happens now, I'm not gonna be afraid.

For those who don't know my name, play me just like a king
Today won't be the same I'm not gonna be afraid
Crushing the overwhelming doubt, scream over the loudest shout
Then whatever happens now, I'm not gonna be afraid.

For those who don't know my name, play me just like a king
Today won't be the same I'm not gonna be afraid
Crushing the overwhelming doubt, scream over the loudest shout
Then whatever happens now, I'm not gonna be afraid.

Whatever this life will bring, I'm not gonna be afraid
This moment means everything, I'm not gonna be afraid.
