

No I don't want this
But I need in your head
You spare me the details
But they'll just make their way through my mind anyway

And I don't want to beg, but I need you now
Cause I'm feeling down
And he is on your mind when I'm in the room
It's like I'm not around

The energy that I could use
Convincing you to stay
Is running low cause I'm a wreck
And you just walk away
Was I a rain cloud on your sunny day

No I don't want this
But too much has been said
So leave me the memories
Cause now they'll always feel better than what was real
Convince yourself that this is best and then forget the rest

No I don't want to beg, but I need you now
Cause I'm feeling down
And he is on your mind when I'm in the room
It's like I'm not around

The energy that I could use
Convincing you to stay
Is running low cause I'm a wreck
And you just walk away
Was I a rain cloud
Was I a rain cloud on your sunny day

No I don't want this
