Finish Ticket

River and rivers and rivers,
Oh currents who carry me
Slivers of quivers in my knees, these shivers
Brings rivers and rivers of tears

I see a better day, my sins have crept away
And I have everything to lose
Retrace those butterflies,
Lost inside demon eyes,
You can hold me to my word

I'm writing my name in the sand,
Leaving myself with this land,
I say that I'm fine, but you know that I might
Just let the tide carry me away

Rivers and rivers and rivers,
Oh currents who carry me
Slivers of quivers in my knees, these shivers
Brings rivers and rivers of tears

My knees are trembling, they shake a symphony
And all i think to do is change
But I'm stuck, I can't get out,
Euphoria of doubt
And I'm holding to my word

I'm writing my name in the sand,
Leaving myself with this land,
I say that I'm fine, but you know that I might
Just let the tide carry me away

All alone

Rivers and rivers and rivers,
Oh look what you've done to me
Slivers of quivers in my knees, these shivers
Brings rivers and rivers of tears

I'm writing my name in the sand,
Leaving myself with this land,
I say that I'm fine, but you know that I might
Just let the tide carry me away
