

Bloom Innocent

Fink

Not a single cloud in the sky tonight
Endless, it's endless
And I don't want to live my life with my feet on the ground, no
Just looking at it, just looking at it
Neither do you, no, neither do you

I know it's hard to have faith with no safety net
I know it's hard to have faith with no safety net
I don't want to live my life from the shore
Just looking, no
Neither do you, no, neither do you, no

And I want to see the moon rise up on a different horizon
I want to see those cute freckles bloom in the sun
Bloom innocent, bloom innocent, bloom innocent
Bloom in the sun

Bloom in the sun
