

In my arms again

Finley

I remember your blue eyes
But I don't know who you are
This could be wrong
But you're the princess of my secret dreams

Now I'm here in front of you
I would make my dreams come true
For just one day
I want to touch your hands and your red lips

The day when you came down
It wasn't raining on this town
It was god who was crying
Because he lost an angel like you
Please remain here on the earth
Don't leave me all alone
Before you go
I want to hold you in my arms again...
Arms again...

Your eyes turn towards the sky
You say: "I should come back home"
These words hurt me more
Than a dagger through my broken heart

Remain here on the earth
Don't leave me all alone
Before you go
I want to hold you in my arms again...
Arms again... arms again...

I could have been more concrete
Forcing you to stay, it's not my way
Why don't you belong to me?
I'm disposed to pay to make you mine
Please dive
Into my raving world
I'm sure that it will be so beautiful
