FINNEAS

It feels a little medieval
If you ask me
Like I'm watching a sequel
I've already seen
I could tell you what happens
To the new king
When he goes out of fashion

I want my money back now
I been in the wrong crowd
I'd never say it out loud
But I've hated every word that comes out of your mouth
What should we fight about this time?
What will you write about this time?
What does it matter if you're not fine?
You shoulda kept that shit offline

It feels a little medieval
If you ask me
Like I'm watching a sequel
I've already seen
I could tell you what happens
To the new king
When he goes out of fashion
It feels a little medieval
Kissing the ring
In a Gothic cathedral
Have you ever seen
What really happens
To people like me
When we go out of fashion

They're gonna tear you from your pedestal
It's almost inevitable
I'm not being cynical
It's so unoriginal
If you get political
They'll make you a criminal
It's all a bit biblical

Don't put your camera down
You don't go to Heaven in a crown
It's not worth the money
Bringing me back
From the dead
I never
Said it would be any fun
You never
Shoulda trusted anyone
They'll love you till they know you're done
Then it's off with his head

It feels a little medieval
If you ask me
I've already seen
I could tell you what happens

To the new king
Kissing the ring
Have you ever seen
What really happens
To people like me
