

Change

Fireboy DML

My life dey make more sense as I get older
Wake up in the morning do some yoga
Now I'm number one I'm going global
And I no go stop until it's over
You see, my cup runneth over
Na why you no fit ever see me sober
If life na war then I be soldier
I'm fighting on until it's over

See my life's about to change
But I feel some typa way
Everyone around me keeps asking me the same
'Are you ready for the pain?
Cause your life's about to change'

Ou ou ou
Ou ou ou
Ou ou ou
My life's about to change
(Yo eskeez kill the rhythm and buss it)

Step ina the room and I got everybody smiling
Don't know if they like me for my person or my talent
Most times I feel like I be suffering but I'm silent
It's kinda hard to deal with pressure but I'm trying Different women in my DMs, it's a challenge
E no go cost me anything to reply them
But blame it on the game my guy it made me savage
Kinda made my feelings fly away
Comment tu t'appelle
Dia on my neck
Pull up in my range
Or we pull up in my benz
Whole lotta bitches
And a whole lotta friends
Whole lotta struggles
Now makes whole lotta sense
Sex and cannabis
Tryna find my peace
I can never miss
I got friends and enemies
And a whole lotta gees
Praying not to see me fall
I've been on the high road
And I've seen it all

But my life's about to change
And I feel some typa way
Everyone around me keeps asking me the same
'Are you ready for the pain?
Cause your life's about to change'

My life's about to change
Oh oh change, change
Everyone around me keeps asking me the same
Are you ready for the pain?
My life's about to change
