

Star

Fireboy DML

I can see myself that day
When I don't blow when I don't get that fame
As soon as I step on stage everybody starts to yell scream my name
Joy that I can't explain
Fireboy DML killing it again
Back to back I yell burst their brain
Singing away all my tears and pain
I remember they say I can't do this
But I say to myself I can prove it

Music is me, I'm the music
I go conquer the world, watch me do it
Woah oh oh
Now they don't know oh oh
Music from heart and soul
I wanna prove to the world that dreams come true

Oh oh oh
I'm gonna be a star
They gon hear me everywhere from near and far
Oh oh oh
I'm gonna be a star
I go write my name forever in your heart
Oh oh oh
I'm gonna be a star
They gon hear me everywhere from near and far
Oh oh oh
I'm gonna be a star
Oh oh oh

Tears in my eyes as I write these (eh)
But I believe I can find these (eh)
No one else does it like this (eh)
Fireboy DML got this fire in his heart
Nothing fit to bring me down
I'mma write my name on the sands of time (yeah)

I remember they say I can't do this
But I said to my self I can prove this
Music is me, I'm the music
I go conquer the world, watch me do it
Woah oh oh oh
Now they don't know oh oh oh
Music from heart and soul
I wanna prove to the world that dreams come true (yeah, eh, yeah)

Oh oh oh
I'm gonna be a star
They gon hear me everywhere from near and far
Oh oh oh
I'm gonna be a star
I go write my name forever in your heart
Oh oh oh
I'm gonna be a star
They gon hear me everywhere from near and far
Oh oh oh
I'm gonna be a star
