Fireflight

No one can break my heart like you
Are you the salt or the stitches for my wounds?
Will you just lead me on or will you pull me through?
No one can break my heart like you

And I cannot explain
Why I love the way

You can take me high
Or tear me down so low
Every word you say flies through this heart of mine
Like an arrow
You can spark a fire
Deep inside my bones
Every move you make strikes every part of me
Like an arrow
Coming at me like an arrow

No one can break your heart like me
Will I carry you to safety or drag you out to sea?
Am I your medication, or just your disease?
No one can break your heart like me

And you cannot explain
Why you love the way

I can take you high
Or tear you down so low
Every word I say flies through this heart of yours
Like an arrow
I can spark a fire
Deep inside your bones
Every move I make strikes every part of you
Like an arrow
Coming at you like an arrow

No one can break my heart like you
No one can take me high like you
No one can light me up or burn me down like you do
And I cannot explain why I love the way

You can take me high
When I'm down so low
Every word you say flies through this heart of mine
Like an arrow
You can spark a fire
Deep inside my bones
Every move you make strikes every part of me
Like an arrow
You can take me high
Or tear me down so low
You can spark a fire
Deep inside my bones
Like an arrow
