

Bang Bang

Fireflight

Are you ready, are you ready
Let me hear you now
Let me hear it, are you ready

Do you pray for something better
Reaching up from the ground but your hands are tied
Do you want more than survival
Do you long for the day when you come to

Life is more than what they told us
And when we rise, their words can't hold us

Are you ready, are you ready
Let me hear you now
Let me hear it, are you ready

Bang, bang, break it down
Don't wait, wait, this is no time to play it safe
Your fate is yours tonight
Bang, bang
Break, break through the walls
And take back every dream you gave away
Your fate is yours tonight
Bang, bang

They knock you down but you're a fighter
Brush yourself back off, you were made to climb
You were born for something greater
Take your first breath of your second chance at

Life is more than what they sold us
And when we rise up, their words can't hold us

Bang, bang, break it down
Don't wait, wait, this is no time to play it safe
Your fate is yours tonight
Bang, bang
Break, break through the walls
And take back every dream you gave away
Your fate is yours tonight
Bang, bang

Your destiny is what you make it
Your future's waiting, reach out and break it

Bang, bang
Bang, bang
Bang, bang
(Are you ready, are you ready, let me hear you now)
Bang, bang
(Let me hear it, are you ready)

Bang, bang, break it down
Don't wait, wait, this is no time to play it safe
Your fate is yours tonight
Bang, bang

And take back every dream you gave away
Bang, bang

Bang, bang, break it down
Bang, bang
Bang, bang

Your fate is yours tonight
Bang, bang
Bang, bang
