

Bringing Me Down

Firehouse

Everything that I do just doesn't seem Quite good enough for you
No matter how hard I try you still complain
You're never satisfied

And I don't know how I can put up with you
Do you realize that you criticize every single thing that I do

Well I'm just trying to do the best that I can
So why are you always bringing me down?
I make the best of every circumstance
so why are you always bringing me down?
Does it make you feel better?

Anytime that I want to do anything
You tell me it's not right
And it seems like every time, you talk to me
You're trying to start a fight

And I don't know how much more I can take of you
When you put down, and you turn around
Every single thing that I do

Well I'm just trying to do the best that I can
So why are you always bringing me down?
I make the best of every circumstance
so why are you always bringing me down?
Does it make you feel better?

You're so condescending, it's making me mad
You go out of your way just to make me look bad

And I don't know how I can put up with you
Do you realize that you criticize every single thing that I do
And I'm getting tired of your attitude

Well I'm just trying to do the best that I can
So why are you always bringing me down?
I make the best of every circumstance
so why are you always bringing me down?
Does it make you feel better?
