

Chains

Firewind

It's human nature, things that we give in
And we're all made to suffer for our sins
You need a reason, to stay away
Standing on high live wire
You are the actor, in a shadow play
To fulfill a desire

So in denial
Then you realise

Chains cannot hold you forever
Chains cannot hold
All alone, forever on your way
Two worlds apart, yet together
And a heartbreak is the price you have to pay, yeah

Your darkest secret has to be destroyed
A confrontation, trying to avoid
Another time and another place
Maybe not in this lifetime
It's an illusion you have to face
It's a reckless desire

So in denial
Then you realise

Chains cannot hold you forever
Chains cannot hold
All alone, forever on your way
Two worlds apart, yet together
And a heartbreak is the price you have to pay
You have to pay

Chains
Chains cannot hold you forever
Two worlds apart
Chains cannot hold you forever
Chains cannot hold
All alone, forever on your way
Forever on your way
Two worlds apart, yet together
And a heartbreak is the price you have to pay

Chains cannot hold you forever
Chains cannot hold
All alone, forever on your way
Two worlds apart, yet together
Together
And a heartbreak is the price you have to pay
