

Destiny Is Calling

Firewind

Black eyes
Just lies
Bad conscience
Where are you?
You just don't mind
And there is nothing wrong to you
No day goes by
That you don't stop to dish it out
There's no remorse to torment you

Can't you see?
Your disillusion
There is no reality
Only confusion

(Fallen one)
Destiny is calling
Tyranny is falling
You can't win this game
There is no way out
Your destiny is calling
Tyranny is falling
You're the one to blame
Life will never be the same

Bad words that hurt
There's no humanity
You're unconcerned
And you will lose your dignity
No rules for you
There is a place to hide away
The path you choose was paved before

Can't you see?
Your disillusion
There is no reality
Only confusion

(Fallen one)
Destiny is calling
Tyranny is falling
You can't win this game
There is no way out
Your destiny is calling
Tyranny is falling
You're the one to blame
Destiny is calling

Destiny is calling

Oh, your disillusion
There is no reality
Only confusion

(Fallen one)
Destiny is calling
Tyranny is falling

You can't win this game
There is no way out
Your destiny is calling
Tyranny is falling
You're the one to blame
Fate reclaims

You choose the game
(Destiny is calling)
Now get the shame
(Tyranny is falling)
Destiny is calling
You choose the game
(Destiny is calling)
Now get the shame
(Tyranny is falling)
You are going down
You choose the game
