Perfect Stranger

Firewind

One life to live, no backup plan
Too many risks, I know I can
Carry this to the finish line
No questions asked, don't waste my time
My future now I will define
I'm breaking all the rules tonight

I hear you calling out my name
Are you ready for the ride?
Are you ready to give in?

You love the thrill, I shoot to kill
You're more than just a perfect stranger
The cut runs deep, but it tastes so sweet
You're more than just a perfect stranger
To me...

The lightning strikes, beware the beast
The fire and fury now unleashed
His mighty roar will crack the sky
Don't play this game, you know me well
I walk alone, I've been through hell
Don't look at me for sympathy

I hear you calling out my name
Are you ready for the ride?
Are you ready to give in?

You love the thrill, I shoot to kill
You're more than just a perfect stranger
The cut runs deep, but it tastes so sweet
You're more than just a perfect stranger
To me...

I hear you calling out my name
Are you ready for the ride?
Are you ready to give in?

You love the thrill, I shoot to kill
You're more than just a perfect stranger
The cut runs deep, but it tastes so sweet
You're more than just a perfect stranger
To me...
