

The Power Lies Within

Firewind

There was a time, your life was pure determination
A special feeling and a fire in your eyes
You felt invincible and doubt was for the others
A real warrior with a strive of victory
Where is he now?

Why can't all these days go on forever?
You hear the calling
Wash away the doubt in the muddy stream
You're not the same anymore
But it is not too late now
You hear the calling
Reignite the fire in your soul
The power lies within, yeah

Your plan of action doesn't have an expiration
A life of freedom is awaiting you today
You contemplate on all the time that you have wasted
Living and learning from mistakes shows you the way
You know who you are!

Why can't all these days go on forever?
You hear the calling
Wash away the doubt in the muddy stream
You're not the same anymore
But it is not too late now
You hear the calling
Reignite the fire in your soul
The power lies within

All these years you've lost yourself
And all your fears they slowed you down - no, no more

Why can't all these days go on forever?
You hear the calling
Wash away the doubt in the muddy stream
The power lies within
You're not the same anymore
But it is not too late now
You hear the calling
Reignite the fire in your soul
The power lies within
The power
