

X's on Trees

Fireworks

Remember when I said,
"Let's go to the neighborhood they haven't finished yet?"
Our minds crossed as cement set
"I don't want to change"
Is what I should have wrote in that driveway
Stay the same
Some decisions you don't make

All this pushed aside
I'm scared of losing the past that we built

You pushed me away
You pushed me away
But I feel alright
If time was on my side, then the clocks would say
"I'm sorry."

Caught myself again
Saying something I didn't mean
All because of spite
The truth remains I'm wrong, you're right
I fuck this up almost every time

All this pushed aside
I'm scared of losing the past that we built
We built
Like every lock needs a key
Nostalgia's just a pillow between my knees
And I can't decide if that's a good or a bad thing

You pushed me away
You pushed me away
But I feel alright
If time was on my side, then the clocks would say
"I'm sorry."
You push me away
You push me away
But I feel alright
I feel alright

If you feel your lake overflowing
I'll drink your water
We could spend more scholarship money
To live like modern day draft dodgers
It's about time I said
Coming up has got me down again
It's about time I said
Coming up has got me down again
Coming up has got me down again

You pushed me away
You pushed me away
But I feel alright
If time was on my side, then the clocks would say
"I'm sorry."
You push me away
You push me away

But I feel alright
If time was on my side, then the clocks would say
What's it got to do with me anyway
