Oh Mother

Fischer-Z

It's not the way you struggle when I kiss you
And it's not the way you taught me to be thughtless
It's just your life is as cold as ice
And nothing can console you

You have to pay the price
lt's not the way you wake me in the moming
And it's not the way you wanted me to prosper
It's just your life is as cold as ice

And nothing can console you
You have to pay the price
The price is high
Oh Oh Mother

The price is high
Oh Oh Mother
It's not the way you lived with your frustration
And it's not the way you smiled at my achievements

It's just your life is as cold as ice
And nothing can console you
You have to pay the price
45 45 Do you remember?

45 45 Do you remember?
lt's not the way you tear yourself to pieces
And it's not the way you're always understanding
It's just your life is as coId as ice

And nothing can console you
You have to pay the price
