Pushing through the market square So many mothers sighing News had just come over We had five years left to cry in

News guy wept and told us Earth was really dying Cried so much his face was wet Then I knew he was not lying

I heard telephones, opera house, favourite melodies Saw boys and toys, electric irons, TVs My brain hurt like a warehouse It had no room to spare I had to cram so many things to store Everything in there

And all the fat-skinny people
And all the tall-short people
And all the nobody people
And all the somebody people
I never thought I`d need so many people

A girl my age went off her head Hit some tiny children If the black hadn`t a-pulled her off I think she would have killed them

I saw a soldier with a broken arm
Fixed his stare to the wheels of a Cadillac
A cop knelt and kiss the feet of a priest
And a queer threw up at the sight of that

I think I saw you in an ice-cream parlour Drinking milk shakes cold and long Smiling and waving and looking so fine Don't think you knew you were in this song

And it was cold and it rained
So I felt like an actor
And I thought of Ma
and I wanted to get back there
Your face, your race, the way that you talk
I kiss you, you`re beautiful, I want you to walk

We got five years, stuck on my eyes We got five years, what a surprise We got five years, my brain hurts a lot We got five years, that's all we've got
