

Vendetta

Fit for a King

This is my vendetta

You left me out, out in the cold
Thought you could put me down and nobody would know
Shut down, locked out
I'm breaking every chain that held me to the ground

Like a tidal wave consumes the shore
This is power
A hammer thundering that you can't ignore
Louder and louder
Like a tidal wave consumes the shore
This is power
A hammer thundering that you can't ignore
This is my vendetta

You can't run from the storm
This is my vendetta
There's no escaping this war
This is my vendetta

I see the fear behind empty eyes
You try to lead but I'm not blind
Burn, waste away
I won't bend, but you will break

Like a tidal wave consumes the shore
A hammer thundering that you can't ignore
This is my vendetta

You can't run from the storm
This is my vendetta
There's no escaping this war
This is my vendetta

I'm where your fall begins
So welcome to the end
This is my vendetta

I'm starting to think this is crazy
You were saying everything was fine
But all I was getting from you was distance and anger
Oh!
