

Too Late

Fit For An Autopsy

Old ashes from repeated mistakes
Hell in a shadow that I can't escape
It's too late, it's too late

Dreams of love, dreams of sex, dreams of joy, dreams of peace
Lie in sickbeds with sweat stained sheets
You only regress, no matter how long you rest
You get what you fucking get

It's too late
Another man falls down
It's too late
Another man falls down

Serenity, the condition we lack
When you finally accept your surroundings, you can cut through the fat
To the meat of the soul. One grand old hole
Stiff, blue, and cold. And now I know
It's too late

A sinners dance of endless posturing
Who the fuck are you when no one's watching?

A sinners dance of endless posturing
Who the fuck are you when no one's watching?

Irreversible
Inescapable
(It's too late)
Undeniable
(It's too late)
Uncontrollable
(It's too late, it's too late)

Dreams of love, dreams of sex, dreams of joy, dreams of peace
Lie in sickbeds with sweat stained sheets
You only regress, no matter how long you rest
You get what you fucking get

It's too late
Another man falls down
It's too late
Another man falls down

Irreversible
Inescapable
Undeniable
Uncontrollable
