

Belladonna

Fitz and the Tantrums

I woke up with some chaos on my mind
I'm heavy every time when I think about you
I know that's not the color of your eyes
Damn it, they don't shine on the cover with you

Everybody knows you're sleeping in your clothes
'Cause you stayed out too late, the maid of honor
You might be too much, but I can't get enough
Take me down, light me up, my belladonna
Belladonna
Belladonna
(Belladonna
Belladonna)

You had played a game that's goin' fast
Taking me to task when I'm slowing you down
There's no compromising, man, it's true
You do just what you do, underneath, we go wild

Everybody knows you're sleeping in your clothes
'Cause you stayed out too late, the maid of honor
You might be too much, but I can't get enough
Take me down, light me up, my belladonna
Belladonna
My belladonna
(You know I wanna)

Ooh, you know I wanna
Can't resist the drama
Ooh, you know I wanna
Do the Dalai Lama
Ooh, love sweet like Prada
Ooh, you know I wanna

Everybody knows you're sleeping in your clothes
'Cause you stayed out too late, the maid of honor
You might be too much, but I can't get enough
Take me down, light me up, my belladonna
(My belladonna)
My belladonna
(My belladonna)
My belladonna
