

Stop

Fitz and the Tantrums

Stop
Stop

I don't wanna go like this
I don't wanna lie here staring at the ceiling
I'm about to lose my shit
Wasting all my money, all I wanna feel is
You can put it all on me
Wake up with that feeling, wake up with it in my chest
In my chest (Chest), chest

I don't wanna, I don't wanna stop
Wait a minute now
When did love get to moving too fast?
Can we do it all again?
Can we do it all again?
And I said stop, wait a minute now
Take the good, the bad, and let it hit you like that
Can we do it all again? Can we do it all again?
And I said stop (Stop, stop, stop, stop)
Stop (Stop, stop, stop, stop)
And I said stop (Stop, stop, stop, stop)
Can we do it all again? Do it all again?
Can we do it all again?

Think about it every day
Running through the halls and stealing from the hands of
Time as it slips away
Everybody says that we don't stand a chance but
You can put it all on me
We can tell all night, running for the hills, baby
Ooh, baby, baby

I don't wanna, I don't wanna stop
Wait a minute now
When did love get to moving too fast?
Can we do it all again?
Can we do it all again?
And I said stop, wait a minute now
Take the good, the bad, and let it hit you like that
Can we do it all again? Can we do it all again?
And I said stop (Stop, stop, stop, stop)
Stop (Stop, stop, stop, stop)
And I said stop (Stop, stop, stop, stop)
Can we do it all again? Do it all again?
Can we do it all again?

I don't wanna go like this
I don't wanna lie here staring at the ceiling
I'm about to lose my shit
Wasting all my money, all I wanna feel is
Think about it every day
Running through the halls and stealing from the hands of
Time as it slips away
Everybody says that, everybody says that

Stop

Wait a minute now
When did love get to moving too fast?
Can we do it all again?
Can we do it all again?
And I said stop, wait a minute now
Take the good, the bad, and let it hit you like that
Can we do it all again? Can we do it all again?
And I said stop (Stop, stop, stop, stop)
Stop (Stop, stop, stop, stop)
And I said stop (Stop, stop, stop, stop)
Can we do it all again? Do it all again?
Can we do it all again?

Can we do it all again?
Can we do it all again?
Can we do it all again?
Can we do it all again?
