

Day By Day

Five For Fighting

Day by day
I wake up for you I do
And I rise up to who knows who
And if I could say some other day
Day by day
I reach up to you I do
And I pretend there's something to it
And if I could say I've had better days
Doo doo doo doo doo
Doo doo doo doo doo
Doo doo doo doo doo

Day by day
I rise up to you I do
And I wash up after you're through
And if I could say that's o.k.
Doo doo doo doo doo
Doo doo doo doo doo
Doo doo doo doo doo

And you're in my head again
And you're in my bed again
And you're in my mirror again
He

And if you don't me I don't mind you
Da da da da
Day by day
I wake up to you I do I do I do
