

The Love You Bring To Me

Five Star

Ooh, ooh, ah baby, yeah
I want you near me, baby
Can't you see it
Your love's electrifying, I can feel it
Your every move sets my soul on fire
I'm here to stay 'cause you're my one desire
Your love is mine
There's no doubt in my mind
Now baby, all that's left to say

Is the love you bring to me
Is oh so satisfying
Things that you do to me
So good, there's no denying
You bring out the best in me
So baby don't ya
'Cause I want ya, I need ya
For the love that you bring to me

When you say you want me, baby
I believe it
You got me mesmerizing and I can't leave it
You got my mind, body and my soul
Come take me now before I lose control
Your love is mine
There's no doubt in my mind

Is the love you bring to me
Is oh so satisfying
Things that you do to me
So good, there's no denying
You bring out the best in me
So baby don't ya
'Cause I want ya, I need ya
For the love that you bring to me

Is the love you bring to me
Is oh so satisfying
Things that you do to me
So good, there's no denying
You bring out the best in me
So baby don't ya
'Cause I want ya, I need ya
For the love that you bring to me

Your love's so electrifying
I can feel it
It's your every move
It's your every move
It's your every move, every move
It's your every move and you know it
Baby, baby

Is the love you bring to me
Is oh so satisfying
Things that you do to me

So good, there's no denying
You bring out the best in me
So baby don't ya
'Cause I want ya, I need ya
For the love that you bring to me
